

COR88100 Miracle Sphere

The eight legged, spider-like Miracle Sphere appeals immensely to children. With its webs of diverse climbing opportunities, it will attract children again and again. The swaying ropes, nets and rubber ladders offer fun and challenging ways to the vertical top net. With its spread out climbing accesses to the top net, the Miracle Sphere caters for a lot of children in fun play at the same time. Apart from being great fun, the Miracle Sphere offers ample training of all major muscles and fundamental motor skills: all muscles are in use when clinging onto the ropes or climbing up high. Important motor skills such as cross-body coordination and spatial awareness are in use. These skills are fundamental e.g. when judging distances and managing traffic securely. The horizontal top net is a great venue for meeting friends, socializing and helping one another up find a way up to chill and enjoy the view.
