Double playhouse with balcony, wood posts, plastic slide

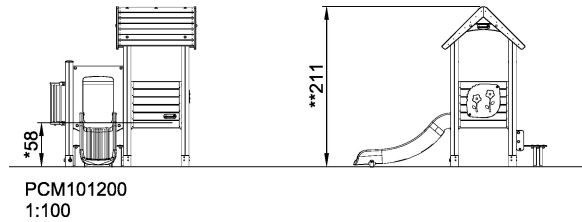

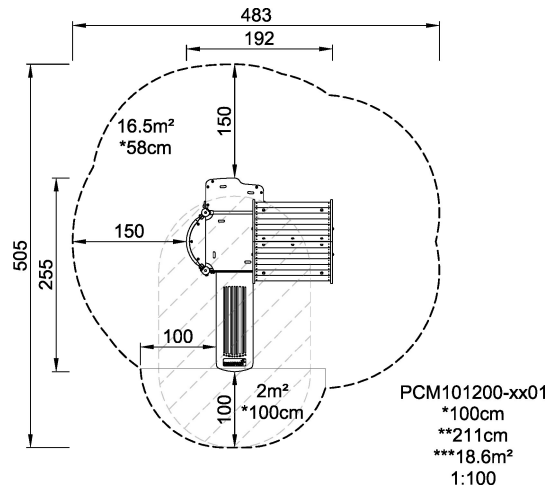

This double playhouse with balcony offers a spacious play area with a number of different activities. The toddler trains his or her gross motor skills by climbing up onto the platform from where the slide provides the child with a fun exit from the platform. The port window is fun to hide behind and peeking through while the flower panel allows the toddler to turn the flowers on one side while flowers on the other side will also turn. From the balcony children can interact.
