Play Tower with Roof, Basic, Plastic Slide

KOMPAN
Let's play

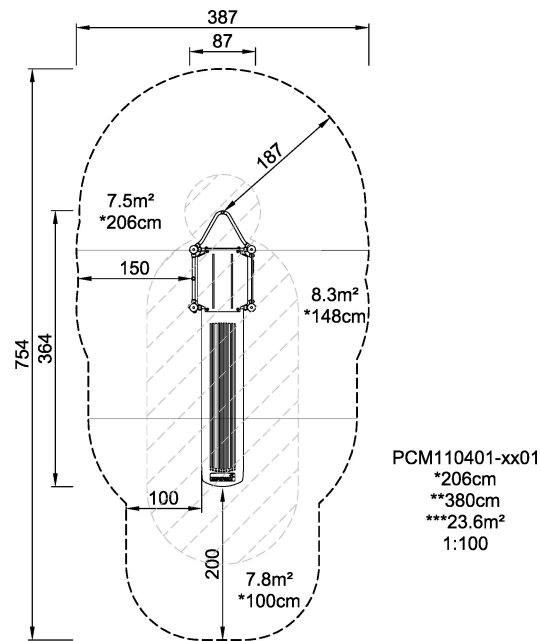

The joy of sliding is great with school age children, and the Play tower with roof offers two variants: a classic slide and a speedy, risky feeling fireman's pole. Apart from being great fun, sliding and gliding down from the platform also train the child's motor skills: the sense of space and the focal tracking. Climbing up the stairs again and again for another go at the slide is great for the child's cross-body coordination as well as the arm and leg muscles.
